West Hallam Well Dressing Festival Saturday 11th July 2009 Programme of Events

All monies collected at the Wells are donated to various local and national charities. The dressers of the wells indicate their choice of charity on the inscriptions next to each well.

St Wilfrid's Church will be open throughout the hours of the Well Dressing Festival on Saturday 11th July.

Refreshments available at the Village Hall and in School Square.

The Well Dressing organisers wish to thank the Parish Council for their monetary support and express their appreciation to everyone who has assisted and contributed to the weekend. Their invaluable help ensures the event's continued success.

We would like to welcome all our friends, old and new, to the 2009
West Hallam Well Dressing Festival.

This year the traditional West Hallam Well Dressing Festival plays host to many new and exciting attractions including:

Arts Market • Scarecrow Trail
Fantasy Creature Workshop

Plus traditionally Decorated Wells
Street Dancing • Live Music • Kung Fu Demonstration & much more!
